ALBA-TCP CELEBRATES PRESIDENTIAL ELECTIONS IN VENEZUELA

The member States of the Bolivarian Alliance for the Peoples of Our America- People's Trade Treaty (ALBA-TCP) congratulate the people and government of the sister Bolivarian Republic of Venezuela on the unquestionable victory of President Nicolás Maduro Moros in the presidential elections held this Sunday, July 28, 2024.

After the 51.20% of the votes, the victory of the Bolivarian Revolution is a demonstration of the strength of the Venezuelan participatory and active democracy, whose people, besieged by imperialist powers, have expressed their will in a civic and deeply patriotic manner in a historic election for the peace and stability of the region and the entire world.

On this very special day, which marks the 70th anniversary of the birth of Commander Hugo Chávez Frías, Venezuela demonstrated its loyalty and commitment to the 21st Century Bolivarian Socialism, a historic project full of social justice, proven and practiced equality and an incredible popular conscience. Venezuela reaffirms the course it sovereignly chose in 1998 and which it has confirmed in 31 electoral processes, in peace and always through constitutional means.

During the last few years, President Nicolás Maduro Moros has demonstrated to be a statesman and his ability to lead the country in the face of the fiercest onslaught of transnational powers, expressed through 930 extortive and illegal coercive measures, aimed at cornering the Venezuelan economy and society, with the shameful purpose of imposing the will of Washington in the homeland of Bolívar. The result of the presidential elections confirms the anti-imperialist and anti-colonialist will of the Venezuelan people, embodied in its People's President.

The Bolivarian Alliance celebrates this victory with great joy, congratulates the Venezuelan people and especially President Nicolás Maduro Moros, for such a transcendent success knowing that, today more than ever, at the head of the revolutionary Government of Venezuela, he will continue to make invaluable contributions to the process of union of Our America, to the most cherished dream of Simón Bolívar, Fidel Castro and Hugo Chávez.
